PRESBYTERIAN ORPHANS' HOME RANKS FIRST IN QUALITY OF WORK DONE

Among the 44 Orphanages of the Two Carolinas, According to Duke Endowment

SCORES 956 POINTS

Out of a Possible 1,000.—Another Orphanage Credited with 955

When the Duke Endowment set up a standard of work for 44 Orphanages in the two Carolinas several years ago, the initial ranking of the institutions disclosed that the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs led all others in point of service. This continues to be true after several years, for a recent chart sent to officials here shows that Barium maintains its supremacy with 956 points out of a possible perfect score of a thousand.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, head of the hospital and orphanage sections of the Duke Endowment, wrote on December 26, 1935 and enclosed a statement indicating numerically the quality of work maintained at Barium in comparison with work at similar institutions. In his letter Dr. Rankin said that "it is of interest to note that among the 44 institutions graded" the Presbyterian Orphans' Home ranked "first in quality of service and fifth in cost per child per day."

The ratings of 12 other institutions were also given, though the names were not revealed, and it showed that another institution graded 955 points, only one less than the Orphanage at Barium. The eight factors involved in arriving at the standard were social service, housing facilities, food served, clothing, health, moral and religious training and the financial records.

In clothing, health, moral and religious training and the keeping of financial records, Barium scored the maximum number of points. Twenty-one points were lost in housing facilities, 15 in social service, six in education and two in food, for the total of 44 points less than the perfect mark.

The chart gave a comparison with the average of the 13 learger institutions in the two states—Orphanages that are built to care for as many as 150 children. These were Baptist, Oxford, Presbyterian, Methodist, Catholic, Children's Home, National Orphans' Home and Alexander Schools in North Carolina, and Thornwell, Connie Maxwell, Epworth, Charleston and John de la Howe School in South Carolina. The average for the 13 Orphanages was 862, which shows that Barium is 94 points above the average. In every one of the eight departments Barium scor-

Football Boys Who Have Finished Careers Here

The 1935 football season was the most enjoyable one ever at Barium. This may sound familiar to readers because it has appeared in other former copies of The Messenger ever since Barium has had a football team; and yet, it is always said with the utmost sincerity and honesty. It must be that we just love our football more each year and that football really does get better.

One of the reasons why the 1935 season was so enjoyable was on account of the excellent performance of the six seniors who were on the team. They are going to be missed. They are: Captain Ed Flowers, one of the classiest backs produced by any high school football team; Ralph Spencer, who played in the backfield this year, having been converted into a blocking back from guard; Milton Gaskill, the smallest package of dynamite on anybody's football team, weighing 124 pounds, but perfectly capable of carrying that football anywhere he sets out to take it. In the line, Roy Wilson, guard, heads the list. He is the smallest linesman on anybody's serious team. He has made such an impression that he gained a berth on the All-State second team. Dewey Barnhill, guard, one of the heaviest boys on the eleven, has played a most consistent game all year. He has wrecked the hopes of the opposition on many an ambitious play. Charles Gallyon, a slim, little boy playing end, but one who manages somehow to be on the receiving end of many a forward pass, he is the other senior that is going to be missed, particularly when the passer is looking around for somebody to whom to shoot that leather.

These are the six regulars that Barium loses. There is a seventh boy, Ben Morrow, one of the most promising players on the 100-110 and 125-pound outfits who was ripe to go places on the varsity this year, but a broken arm, suffered while on vacation last summer, prevented his active participation this fall. Ben has had to assist as chain-toter, or something like that, and has not been able to shine as he would have done, but for that pesky accident. These boys still have a few chores to do in basketball, wrestling and track, but they have played their last football for Barium, and we are going to miss them.

Christmas Cards

Christmas, as usual, brings me a shower of Christmas cards, and my impulse is to answer and acknowledge each one of these Christmas cards with a personal letter. That has been one of my New Year's resolutions every year since coming to Barium, but like a lot of other New Year Resolutions, it has not been carried out.

So many of the cards do not have complete addresses. I know who they are from, but this habit that girls have of changing their names when they get married, gets me all bothered. So, instead of attempting to do a job just half way, I am using this method of acknowledging to all of those that sent Christmas cards.

I wish you all a most happy and successful New Year. I hope during the year you will visit Barium Springs, and that I will see you. I hope that you can all come back Home-Coming Day, and whatever you do, don't forget to send me a Christmas card next

Two More Sunday Schools Adopt Plan

Good news for the New Year! Along with the joy of receiving the Thanksgiving Offering came the revelation that Poplar Tent Sunday School, since 1935-1936 started in April, has been devoting an offering per month to the Orphanage. This was revealed when a contribution was received for the past nine months. And, then the New Year was started off in great style when officials here were informed that Manley Sunday School, in Fayetteville Presbytery, had started 1936 by voting to give the first Sunday Offering to the Orphanage every month. The initial gift came in January.

It's a pleasure to add Poplar Tent and Manley Sunday Schools to the ever growing list of "once-a-monthers". Other Sunday Schools have this plan under consideration at the present time. Maybe there'll be some other joyous revelations during January, or before the next issue of The Messenger goes to press.

Music Club Notes

The Music Club has held its regular monthly meeting. Several members of the club are preparing to enter the state federated music contest which will be held in March.

A public recital by the piano pupils and the glee clubs will be given in January.

The following program was given at the last club meeting:

Roll call answering with names of composers.

"Gypsy Rondo"—Haydn, Hattie Michael.

"A Waltz," Fred Edwards.

"Festival March"—Law, Stanley Smith and Miss Greene.

"Hungarian Dance"—Brahms, Linda Culp.

GRANVILLE PRESBYTERY LEADS ALL OTHERS IN PER CAPITA INCREASE

As Compared With Amount Given A Year Ago.—Five Others Exceed Last Year's

TOTAL WAS $42,036.90

On Jan. 13, 1936.—Estimated $2,000.00 More Will Be Received

On January 13th, the Thanksgiving Offering for 1935 had reached the sum of $42,036.90, which was $4,225.59 greater than the final total for 1934. This answers one of the most pertinent questions in the Synod during the past month, a query that has been propounded quite frequently in letters, in conversations with individuals and in telephone calls. It is estimated that at least $2,000.00 more will be received in supplementary amounts and in Thanksgiving Offerings that have not yet been forwarded to the Orphanage by local treasurers.

Of the 445 complete reports that had been received from churches by January 13th, 270 of them had shown increases over the '34 Offerings, with 175 giving lesser amounts. Of the 270 which had increased, 87 of them had contributed the best Thanksgiving Offerings in the past 11 years.

Above are the latest figures on the Thanksgiving reports, and the remainder of this article will deal with the table of receipts and Thanksgiving income through December 31, 1935. The Thanksgiving Offering on that date totaled $40,258.02, and a distribution by Presbyteries showed that Albemarle, Concord, Granville, Kings Mountain and Mecklenburg had shown increases over 1934, with Fayetteville, Orange, Wilmington and Winston-Salem behind last year's aggregates. However, all Presbyteries are expected to show increases before the books are closed on the Thanksgiving Offering next March 31st.

A comparison of Thanksgiving Offerings of 1934 and that which had been received by December 31st, follows:

Presbytery	1934 Final	1935 to Dec. 31, '35
Albemarle	$ 1,963.61	$ 2,114.47
Concord	8,979.33	9,476.69
Fayetteville	3,828.41	3,761.58

ANNUAL BANQUET LAST MONTH FOR FOOTBALLERS

On Friday, December 13th, we had the big football banquet that officially wound up the 1935 season. There were a number of visitors present from Statesville, Davidson and from the towns that had representatives present to receive All-Conference awards.

One of the big features of the occasion was the awarding of letters.

The 85-pound team, with a season's record of three wins and three losses, had 14 men receiving letters. S. A. Grier awarded these and had a few appropriate words to say to these boys and their older brothers. Those receiving these certificates were: wyn Fletcher, Joe Ben Gibbs, Billy Linsday, John Irby McDonald, Cecil Starling, Tommy Adams, Robert Adams, Miller Blue, Thomas Morgan, Hugh Norman, Henry Pittman, James Shroyer and Jesse Weeks.

Cheek Freeman, last year's captain, awarded the 100-pound letters. This team had a season's record of five victories and five defeats. Those receiving the awards were: Donald Bolton, Robert Bosworth, Nelson Farmer, John Cole McCrimmon, Neil McKee, Paul McKenzie, Arthur Roach, Clarence Robards, Lacy Adcox, Olin Brigance, Montieth Hendrix, Dalma Jessup, Richard Martin, William Smith and Ray Norman.

Some Cottage News

INFIRMARY

When Christmas comes we lose our heads because we are having such a good time!

We girls did all the decorating this year, and we must have done it well, for all who saw it said it was very pretty, but we thought the little pine tree with the cones on it was the nicest part of it all.

When the packages came Miss Lackey and Miss Moore hid them and we did not know they were here. They hid one of Linda Culps' so well that they forgot it until New Year, so Linda had two celebrations.

No one was sick on Christmas day and we all had a good time going to the other cottages and seeing what Santa had brought the girls there.

The Monday following, Dr. Herman came and began the physical examinations, and on Wednesday Dr. Seay came for the tuberculosis examinations.

About all we heard as they came out of the room was, "He said I was O. K." and that was just after Christmas when every one was doing double duty at the table.

pendix for the pleasure of a ten-day stay at the Davis Hospital.

Those of us who could stay in the house liked the snow and rain but the ones who had to go out for meals would have liked to go by plane.

ANNIE LOUISE

Dear Friends:

Santa has come and gone. He brought us loads of nice things this year. We have so many pretty dolls and are having a wonderful time playing with them.

Wish you could have seen our Christmas tree; it was beautiful with our gifts around it. Mr. Johnston and Mr. Brown gave out our gifts and we were one happy crowd when we opened our packages.

Mrs. Adams (Betty's grandmother) brought the nicest coconut cake and we surely enjoyed it. Betty went home with her grandmother for a short visit.

We were glad to have Mrs. Holton and Nancy Parcell stay with us while Miss McGoogan spent the week-end with home folks.

We received 37 beautiful bed spreads; eighteen of these spreads were sent from Belmont; eighteen from Kannapolis Auxiliary and one from Circle No. 2 of the Galatia Auxiliary. Many thanks to these good friends for remembering us so generously at the Christmas season.

School opened January 1st and we are going to work hard and try to get on the honor roll the first month in 1936.

Mr. Sams invited us to the movies twice during the Christmas holidays. We enjoyed both pictures ever so much.

Here's wishing each of you a very Happy New Year.

RUMPLE HALL

Hi Folks:

Well, here we are again, back at our regular routine of living after having a most delightful time during the Christmas holidays.

We, like everyone else, have lots of snow. It now looks as if it wants to turn to ice, but we're hoping it won't because we still remember the damage that was done by ice and sleet about two years ago.

Some of the girls who had visits from their folks were: Flora Mae Newnam's brother Oscar, who used to be a Barium boy, her brother, Robert, and her mother; Frances Morgan's sister, Ruth, who is a former Barium girl, and her mother and brother; Mary Adams' folks, who took her home for a few days; Glenn Linsday's mother, who took her to Charlotte; and Nancy Stafford, Helen Price and Mary Ann McCormick also had visits from their relatives. Polly Garrett spent one afternoon in Statesville with her mother.

Others of us, whose folks did not come, had a good time, too. We went to the show on Christmas Eve to see "Freckles", with Tom Brown the star. We also went to see "Scrooge" during the holidays. We enjoyed both very much.

We say, with much regret, that one of our girls, Lily McDonald, is at the hospital, having undergone an appendix operation the day before Christmas. All the Rumple Hall girls wrote her a Christmas letter. (I bet she's not through with them all yet.) We hope she'll be well and strong enough to come to us real soon. She developed a cold a day or two after the operation, and we were very much worried about her for several days, but she's getting along fine now.

I hope Santa Claus was real good to every one. I also hope that '36 will be the best year yet.

—Denzil Cartret.

HOWARD

Hello Everybody:

We had a merry Christmas and hope you did, too.

We were all sorry when the holidays were over because we were having a good time playing with our games. Santa Claus brought us several new ones.

The big snow came, and we were all glad to see it, even though it was too deep to play in very much.

We appreciate the invitations from Mr. Sams to see "Freckles" and "Scrooge", and also for giving each of us a box of candy.

Sarah Parcell and Vivian Brigance had visits from their mothers during the holidays.

We are having our annual health test and everyone is excited over how much they have gained during the year.

Lily and Gertrude Bryant received peanuts from their people. We want to thank them, for everybody in the cottage is enjoying them, too.

We also want to thank the kind friends who sent the fine cakes for Christmas.

We are wishing for you a happy and prosperous New Year.

—Emma Eudy.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Second Floor

We started back to school today after nearly two weeks of holidays.

I suppose most everybody is busy either making or keeping their New Year resolutions.

Did you enjoy the holidays? We sure did, for when we woke up Sunday morning everything was completely covered with snow. We had to walk where we thought the sidewalks were, with the result that there were tracks in every direction. Snow balls and sleds were kept going until today when we didn't have much time for play.

Santa finally got around to our house on Christmas Eve after all the wondering if he would ever come. Everybody was pleased with what he or she received and we thank all of our kind friends who played Santa Claus to us.

There were lots of visitors, especially the children's relatives, on the campus during the holidays.

We are now looking forward to getting our report cards for the first four months, which is the first semester, and we are all wondering what we made on our examinations.

Mr. Sams invited us to see "A Christmas Carol" and "Freckles" during the holiday season. We enjoyed them both. Many thanks, Mr. Sams.

Our class basketball games are over and it won't be long before we start playing varsity games. We're hoping to win all of them this year.

Helen Moore.

SYNOD'S

Howdy Everybody:

On Christmas Eve Miss Taylor told us go to bed early, and when we arrived at our bedsides our toys were on our beds. We didn't go to sleep for some time!

We hope you had a merry Christmas. We sure did. We got all the things we asked for, and then some. On Christmas we skated all day, and certainly were tired that night.

It snowed about nine inches deep up here. We had a good time playing on it with our sleds.

Gastone Allessendrini went to Charlotte and ate supper at Miss Polly Shoaf's. Miss Taylor took him.

It has rained a lot since Christmas. The sun starts shining and then it rains again.

We were very glad to greet the teachers when they came back and hope they had a happy Christmas.

Gastone Allessendrini

BABY COTTAGE

Dec. 6—Mama Girt took to town the babies who are too young to go to school. A lady gave each of us a sucker. Afterwards we visited around the stores to see the toys.

Dec. 7—All of us have colds and such a coughing time we have!

Dec. 8—We were glad to have the two Browns from Davidson conduct the morning service for us while Mr. Brown, our pastor, helped to install Dr. McMurray as pastor of the Front Street Church in Statesville. Our new baby, Mary Frances Strickland, had a visit from her mother. Doris Gant's mother and some of her friends came to see her also.

Dec. 9—Betty and Peggy Coffey, our girl twins, had birthdays. They were made happy by gifts from their mother and friends in Greensboro.

Dec. 10—Mrs. J. B. Johnston kept us little folks while Mama Girt went to Charlotte. We enjoyed having Mrs. J. B., and know Mama enjoyed her day off.

Dec. 11-13—Usual thing.

Dec. 14—Mr. Sams invited us to see "The Rain Maker." We went and had lots of fun. Thank you, Mr. Sams.

Dec. 15—It was so rainy that Mama McGirt kept us at home and we had our Sunday School lesson here.

Dec. 17—We hear all the other big children talking about mid-term examinations, but all that we can be bothered about is that there are not but a few more days until Christmas.

Dec. 18—This morning Sarah Fort was exempted from one of her examinations, so she came home and helped Mama take the children, who do not go to school, to Statesville to see if we could see Santa Claus. We didn't see him but we saw some of his work and had a good time. Mama took the boys and girls, who go to school, in the aftrenoon, and they had better luck. They saw Santa Claus on the street.

Dec. 19—Miss Carson, a former teacher at Barium, came out with five other ladies and most of her first grade from Statesville. We are always glad to see Miss Carson. Wish you could see all the nice things her first grade brought us. Included were toys, candies and apples. Many, many thanks.

Dec. 21—Mr. Sams invited us to see "Scrooge," based on the Christmas carol by Charles Dickens. Thanks a lot, Mr. Sams.

Dec. 22—We were surprised to see snow on the ground this morning. Virginia Hall Mission Band, of which Miss Rebekak Carpenter is leader, gave a Christmas pageant and it was very beautiful. Mama Girt took us and we enjoyed it a great deal for Mama and the big girls have been reading to us about the birth of Jesus, and we have learned the first twelve verses of the second chapter of Matthew.

Dec. 23—Mama Girt decorated our Christmas tree and it looks real pretty, too. Charles Barrett said he thought Santa Claus would not come to see people who had pine Christmas trees, so it is a good thing that Mr. Clark brought us a cedar, for we don't want Santa to miss us.

Dec. 24—Mr. Sams has invited us to see another show. We appreciate his thoughtfulness and kindness to us and sincerely hope he has a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. A nice lady, Miss Durham of Kannapoils, brought us three nice scrap books A heap of thanks to you, Miss Durham. When we came back from the show Gene Love's aunt and uncle came and brought him a nice big red wagon and lots of other presents. Tonight we all hung up our stockings for Santa Claus to fill and put our names on them. We left the lights on the Christmas tree so Santa Claus could read our names better. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy McGirt came to spend Christmas with Mama McGirt and us. We hope they enjoy their visit.

Dec. 25—My! But Santa Claus sure was good to all of us. All our stockings were full of candy, nuts and fruit, and besides our stockings were all sorts of toys. Each of us got presents from under the Christmas tree. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnston came over to see what Santa Claus brought us and "Daddy" Johnston gave out the presents. Santa Claus left him and Mrs. Johnston some candy and fruit, too. All of the girls got a pretty doll and either got a trunk or tea-set with them, and maybe, both. We got lots of story books from which the big girls will read us bedtime stories, and also lots of color books. There were many musical instruments, drums, horns, a violin, a piano, an accordion and harps. We had almost enough instruments for a band. Santa brought us tops, balls, trains, trucks, wagons, cars, marbles and all sort of playthings. Santa certainly made the 21 members of this cottage awful happy by his visit. We would like to thank Santa Claus for all the pretty play toys.

awarded the 125-pound letters. This team, as usual, came through the season undefeated, having played nine games. The members receiving letters were: Howard Beshears, Alexander Edwards, John Donaldson, Ray Clendenin, Eugene Shannon, Fred Johnson, Arnim East, Arthur Sigmon, George Faison, Willard Drye, Eugene Bosworth, John Ellis, J. D. Beshears, Joe Savage, Robert Gallyon, Julius Kinard and Worth Bolton.

The varsity letters were awarded by Mr. Calhoun. The varsity played a ten-game schedule, winning eight and losing two. Those receiving awards were: Joe White, David Spencer, Oscar Clark, Hugh McCrimmon, Dewey Barnhill, Roy Wilson, Ed Flowers, Ralph Spencer, Marley Sigmon, Claybourne Jessup, Fred Elliott, Clyde Johnson, Charles Gallyon, Robert Mills, Milton Gaskill, and Ben Morrow.

The newly elected captain for the 1936 season is Clyde Johnson. Ed Flowers retiring captain, delivered the captain's commission to him. The alternate captain for 1936 is David Spencer. Elsewhere in this issue, we are showing the pictures of the eight Seniors that we are losing from our football squad.

Mr. Calhoun presided at the banquet, and did it so well that nearly all of the visitors were heard from, and still the banquet came to a close on schedule time.

Certificates and tokens were awarded the players from the various teams that had been voted the best for their position in the conference. Those so honored were: Ed Flowers and Roy Wilson of Barium, Vance Alexander of Statesville, Leazer of Kannapolis, Walters, Beaver, and Bratton from Concord. The four members that were chosen from the Lexington team were unable to attend the banquet.

A few statistics were presented which showed that the South Piedmont teams played a superior brand of football, and for this year rated ahead of even the Class-A competitors.

tributed 72 cents per member when the December table of receipts was prepared, which is a gain of 22 cents per member over the report for the corresponding month of 1934-1935, and which is likewise the greatest gain of any Presbytery in the Synod. Mecklenburg's gain was not far behind, showing an advance of 18.7 cents per member. The five other Presbyteries showing increases (and this includes both the regular and Thanksgiving responses) were Kings Mountain, 10.7 cents; Orange 5.7 cents; Albemarle 5.5 cents; Fayetteville 3.2 cents, and Wilmington 2.4 cents.

Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries were the only two which fell behind last year's per capita mark at the close of the third quarter. Concord was 26.1 cents below last year and Winston-Salem, 22.3 cents. However, it will be recalled that last December a special Christmas gift of $4,000.00 came through one of the churches in Concord Presbytery, which is equivalent to 35 cents per member. If that were not considered, Concord Presbytery would be ahead of 1934-1935.

Despite the absence of this $4,000.00 gift from that Presbytery this year, Concord leads the Synod in per capita giving with a total of 118.7 cents. Winston-Salem trails Concord by only two-tenths of a cent, for that Presbytery has a per capita sum of 118 5. Albemarle is the only other Presbytery that had reached the minimun of 90 cents per member required of all Presbyteries to operate the institution in the first nine months. Albemarle had given 92 cents per member by December 31st.

There is a difference of 69 8 cents per member between Concord, the leader with 118.7 cents, and Wilmington Presbytery, occupant of the cellar, with 48.9 cents.

year, and please put your complete address on it. Who knows! Maybe next year I will keep that New Year's resolution and some time during the year, at least, write you a letter. There are a lot of pleasant things connected with work at Barium Springs. One of the most pleasant is to be remembered by that great number of grown up children who have scattered all over the United States. Happy Days to all of you!

The highest cost per child per day of the 13 larger Orphanages was $0.9627; Barium's cost was $0.8733. The average for the 13 was $0.7195 per child. This shows that Barium's per capita cost per day was $0.0894 less than the highest cost of any institution, while the local expenses are $0.1538 above the average of 13 Orphanages.

Included in Barium's cost is the large item of interest on the indebtedness of the institution, which figures out at around three cents per child per day. The cost per child per day, too, includes the estimated worth of all contributed commodities and what the state pays the teachers in the schools.

THANK YOU FRIENDS!

Your gifts at Christmas-time made our children very, very happy. We have tried to send cards and letters to most of you telling how grateful we are for these remembrances. There are several whose names or addresses are missing and so we are unable to get cards or letters to you. We hope those who have not heard in this way will read The Messenger and know that we DO APPRECIATE the gifts and the thoughts behind them more than you can ever know.
